

How an Environmental Goods Agreement can advance trade and environmental policies

Tuesday, July 8, 2014

World Trade Organization

Room S-2

In order to encourage an open dialogue, this conversation is off-the-record. Remarks are not to be published, posted or tweeted without the consent of the speakers.

Agenda

14:00-15:00: Featured remarks from:

Mr. Wang Qiang

Association Director, Environmental Expert, China Association of Machinery Industry for Environmental Protection (CAMIE)

Mr. Pierre Tardieu

Senior Political Affairs Advisor
EWEA - The European Wind Energy
Association

Mr. Timothy J. Richards

Chairman, World Energy Council Knowledge
Network on Rules of Trade and Investment and Managing Director, Government Affairs and Policy, General Electric Company

Mr. Klaus Wellstein

Representing the Emissions Control
Technology Association (ECTA) and General Manager, Corning GmbH and CPSA, Regional Director Europe, Environmental Technologies

Mr. Genichiro Shimada

Chairman, International Trade and Investment
Committee, Japan Machinery Center for Trade and Investment and General Manager, International Relations Group, Government and External Relations Division, Panasonic
Corporation

15:00-16:00: Moderated discussion with featured speakers, other representatives of global industry, officials and experts about how an EGA can benefit the economy and the environment

18:00-20:00: Following the conclusion of this discussion, please join ICTSD, CAMIE, JMC, NAM, NFTC and USCIB for:

A cocktail in support of green trade and sustainable development