

Curriculum Vitae: National Councilor Thomas Aeschi

Thomas Aeschi is a Swiss politician. Thomas Aeschi is a member of the large chamber of the Swiss national parliament (Nationalrat), as well as of the cantonal parliament of Zug, one of Switzerland's 23 cantons, and president of the Swiss People's Party (SVP) in Baar. He works as a strategy consultant for an international management consulting firm. He holds a Master in Public Administration from Harvard University (John F. Kennedy School of Government) and a Master of Business Administration from the University of St.Gallen, Switzerland's leading business school. He also studied at Tel Aviv University in Israel and at University Sains Malaysia in Malaysia.

Before working in the consulting industry, Mr. Aeschi was a Zurich- and Melbourne-based analyst in the mergers and acquisitions group of a large financial institution. Mr. Aeschi was also a member of the organizing committee of the St. Gallen Symposium, which aims to stimulate thought and action for the sustained success of companies and societies in a globalised world. In the Swiss Military, Mr. Aeschi holds the rank of a first lieutenant.

Mr. Aeschi was born and raised in the canton of Zug in Switzerland. While attending the cantonal high school, he was on a student exchange at a U.S. High School in the vicinity of Chicago, living for one year with an American host family.